

2017-2018 P.A.W.S

(Parents Active Within Schools)

We are delighted to invite you to participate in this collaboration between the Broome County Promise Zone and Johnson City School district to connect with each other and the school in a new and unique way. The P.A.W.S program is designed to bring you important district news, opportunities for programs in the community as well as opportunities to meet and connect with other parents.

Please spread the word, and consider bringing a friend!
